NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GRAND LODGE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY,
RALEIGH, Nov. 13th, 1876.

The Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina, will commence its 90th Annual Communication at the Masonic Hall, Fisher Building, in this City, on Tuesday, 5th of December next, at 7 o'clock P. M.

Return tickets can be obtained by officers and representatives on application there for over the following named railroads, &c. at the rates mentioned:

Western North Carolina, Seaboard & Roanoke, Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio, Western (from Fayetteville) and Dismal Swamp Canal, on the payment of one first-class fare, and over the following roads at six cents per mile for the round trip: Raleigh & Gaston; Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, and Richmond & Danville, North Carolina Division.

The Grand Secretary's certificate of attendance will entitle officers and representatives to return free over the following roads: Carolina Central Railway, and Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

It is specially suggested that return tickets over all the routes mentioned except the three last, are necessary to prevent the payment of full fare.

——Christmas a month from yesterday.

——The Register of Deeds issued five marriage licenses yesterday.

——The Governor's thanksgiving proclamation appears in another column.

——The Mayor's morning levee yesterday did'nt pan out an item.

——Fancy stores are already beginning to assume a Christmas look.

——They are paying in taxes in a right lively manner at the Sheriff's office.

——The Southern Underwriters Association, of this city, furnished the Legislature with blotting paper.

——There will be a meeting of the Monogram Pleasure Club Monday evening at the office of Mr. Geo. M. Smedes.

——A large number of our citizens will attend the Methodist Conference at Greensboro, which meets Monday.

——The country was well represented in this city yesterday, though merchants grumbled somewhat at the flatness of trade.

——Regular communication of Wm. G. Hill Lodge to-morrow night at Masonic Hall. Members are urged to attend.

——Theo. N. Ramsay, the great international temperance apostle, is shelling the rum mills of Wilson county.

——Preparations are on foot to make the Vance inaugural torchlight procession the grandest ever witnessed in this latitude.

——Thus far the Sheriffs have paid into the State treasury $71,788.56. At this time last year double this amount had been paid in.

——The Governor is now inspecting the returns of the electoral vote of this State. We are now informed that the count will not be given to the public until Monday.

While other communities are putting up a claim to the oldest person in the United States, let us not forget that John Hunter, col., of this city, is 112 years old, and walks about right sharp.

——The papers announce the death of E. A. Vogler, Esq., of Salem. He was well known here in connection with the State Fair, of which enterprise he was an active friend. We regret to record the death of such a man.

Sheriff Z. F. Long, of Richmond county, brought five prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday. All were colored and their names are as follows: Dan Bennet, John Williams, Chas. Graham, Jim Tyson and Armistead Terry.

——The pastor and officers of the Salisbury Street Baptist Church extend, through us, to the members of the Legislature and other strangers in the city an invitation to attend their interesting Sunday school at 9 o'clock this morning.

——Yesterday the Board of County Examiners examined Miss Annie M. Day, who was an applicant for a certificate to teach in the public schools of this county. She passed a good examination and was awarded a certificate of the first grade.

——The remains of the late Willoughby F. Avery passed up the North Carolina Railroad yesterday morning, accompanied by his wife and child, and several personal friends of the deceased. They will be carried up the Western North Carolina by special train to day, and entered in the family burying ground at Morganton.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Late last night we learned that Governor Brogden had declared that there were "serious irregularities" in the returns of the electoral vote of this State, and that he should have to "consult counsel" before proclaiming the result. We have no fancy or taste for the manufacture of baseless sensational reports, and would not mention this matter if it had no better foundation than a mere street rumor, but our information comes direct from a gentleman who conversed yesterday with the Governor on the subject. This information, taken in connection with the rather strange delay in proclaiming the count, produces a slight suspicion that an attempt might be made to make Kilpatrick's late visit here bear fruit worthy of Hayes' acceptance. Day before yesterday a NEWS Reporter called upon the Secretary of State in regard to the count of this vote, and was informed by that officer that the count had been made, but that the Governor would have to go over it, and it would be given to the press the next day (yesterday.) The Secretary told the Reporter that as the returns from the eight missing counties would not materially affect the result, that they would be passed over; that Tilden's majority, roughly estimated, was between 15,000 and 16,000. The next day (yesterday) came and the Reporter called again, and was then informed that the Governor had not finished the count, but it would certainly, as stated elsewhere, be ready Monday, and now on the heels of this comes the information above alluded to. In this connection it will be well to remember that the majority of the eight defaulting counties are Democratic. A list of these counties has already been published.

We cannot suppose for a moment that any one will be so foolhardy, and reckless of the dire consequences, as to attempt to play the Louisiana and South Carolina game here. We only give our readers the benefit of our latest information on this important matter. We again ask, what does it mean?

Lobbyists.

We learn that quite a number of lobbyists are in the city with the intention of nursing our Legislature into instructing our United States Senators, and requesting our members of the lower House of Congress, to use their influence in favor of the plans and objects of the Southern Pacific Railroad. We also learn that several gentlemen are here on the contra side. What truth there is in these rumors we do not know, but merely mention the matter to keep our readers posted in the gossip of the day. What the specific plans and objects of these lobbying gentlemen are we have not yet ascertained.

A Striking Fact.

It is worthy of remark that there is not a single member of the Jones family in the present Legislature. There is but one Smith and but one Brown. On account of the "painful lack" of Joneses, Smiths and Browns, this will be the history Legislature of the present decade.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876--'77.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, NOV. 25

SIXTH DAY.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock, Mr. Robinson in the chair.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Mr. Graham, from the Committee on Finance, submitted tabular statements relating to the Auditor's report of receipts and disbursements of the State funds, with a proposition to print, which was ordered.

Mr. Waddell, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills, reported a bill for the relief F. J. Satchwell, sheriff of Beaufort county, and a resolution relative to the public debt, as being properly engrossed.

Mr. Folk, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a bill to amend an act to incorporate the Dan River Navigation Company, recommending its passage.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

concurring in Senate amendment to bill to validate certain election returns, and a resolution to raise a joint committee to inquire as to the number of subordinate employes allowed each branch of the General Assembly, and the compensation allowed each.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

The following bills and resolutions were introduced and disposed of as follows:

Mr. Albright: Bill to amend sec. 6, chap. 101 of Battle's Revisal, relating to religious worship. Referred to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Dr. Dortch: Bill to amend sec. 2, chap. 18, Battle's Revisal, relating to summons. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Scales: Bill to amend sec. 412, chap. 17, Battle's Revisal. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Finger: Bill to amend chapter 37, Battle's Revisal, relating to divorce. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Short: Bill concerning mutual insurances companies incorporated in this State. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Moore (colored): Bill to incorporate Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, of the city of Wilmington. Referred to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Johnston: Bill for the relief of Pickney, Rollins & Co. Referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Justice: Bill to amend chap. 237, laws of 1874-'75, relating to the qualification of county officers. Calendar.

Mr. Caho: Bill to amend sections 35 and 39 of chap. 102, of Battle's Revisal. Referred to Committee on Finance.

Mr. Sandifer: Bill to amend chap. 68 of Battle's Revisal. Referred to Committee on Education.

Mr. Stewart: Bill to repeal chap. 79 of laws of 1871-'72, changing Sampson county from the 4th to the 5th judicial district. Calendar.

Mr. Folk: Bill relating to solicitors. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

Mr Folk: Bill to alter the mode of paying solicitors. Same reference made.

Mr. Folk: Bill to repeal an act ratified March 22d, 1875, relating to the sale of bonds.

[This bill proposes to repeal the law which authorized parties holding bonds of the State, issued for internal improvements previous to the war, to sell the same. The preamble says that said act was never read in the Senate, save by its title, which, it is alleged, conveyed a false impression as to the real contents of said act.]

Mr. Folk stated that the bill was not prepared by himself and he knew nothing in regard to the facts set forth therein, but it had been handed to him by a citizen of the State and he felt it was his duty to present it for the consideration of the Senate. The bill was placed on the calendar.

Mabson, col., resolution to raise a joint committee to visit the colored insane asylum of Edgecombe county and to take into consideration the propriety of establishing a colored insane asylum for the colored insane of the State. Referred to the Committee on Insane Asylum.

Mr. Finger, a resolution asking information of the Governor relative to the Western North Carolina Railroad and the Western Insane Asylum. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Troy, a resolution of instruction to the Committee on the Judiciary to report a bill relating to county government.

On motion of Mr. Latham, it was amended by referring the subject to the committee on county government.

On motion of Mr. Boddie, it was amended by striking out the clause, "The same to be uniform throughout the State."

Mr. Troy advocated the passage of the resolution at once in order that the bill presented by the committee might be printed before the recess, and each member have a copy to take home with him, and when they returned in January they would be better qualified to legislate on that subject.

After some discussion, on motion of Mr. Williams, its further consideration was postponed until Wednesday at 12 M.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The President announced the following committees:

Currency—Messrs. Merrimon, Latham, Marler, Fowle, Slaughter, Shotwell, Lee, Bennett, York, Caho, Wynne, Mercer and Dunn.

SENATE BRANCH JOINT COMMITTEES.

Banks and Currency—Messrs. Mebane, of Rockingham, Marler and Ferguson.

Insurence—Messrs. Short, Bingham and Cunningham.

Penal Institutions—Messrs. Troy, Wilson and Hielig.

Library—Messrs. Liles, Scales and Green.

Public Buildings &c.—Messrs. Ferguson, Mercer and Thorne.

Deaf and Dumb Asylum—Messrs. Latham, Nicholson and Marler.

Insane Asylum—Messrs. Stanford, Moore, of Mecklenburg, and Liles.

CALENDAR.

Resolution asking information of the Governor in reference to the Western North Carolina Railroad and the Western Insane Asylum, passed.

Resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill to inflict penalties and punishment on sheriffs making improper election returns, passed.

Bill to repeal chapt. 79 of laws of 1871-'72 relating to additional pay for the Judge of the 5th judicial district, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Dan River Navigation Company, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

Bill to amend chapt. 237 of laws of 1874-'75, relating to the time for qualifying county officers, was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

Resolution in favor of G. W. and B. K. Dickey, of Cherokee county.

Mr. Johnston advocated its passage.

Mr. Robbins moved its reference to the committee on claims.

Mr. Folk supported the motion to refer and it prevailed.

On motion the Senate adjourned until Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SIXTH DAY.

At 10 A. M. Mr. Speaker Price called the House to order.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Spake, of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Staples, from the Committee on Judiciary, reported upon several bills.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Staples: A bill to amend sub-division 24, section 8, chapter 28, Battle's Revisal, in regard to the maintenance of the poor. Judiciary. [Bill prevents the hiring out of paupers.]

By Mr. Bagley: A bill to repeal the Landlord and Tenant Act. Judiciary.

By Mr. Parrish: A bill to extend charters granted within the last two years. Corporations.

By Mr. McCubbins: A bill to amend chapter 52, Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.

By Mr. Johnston, of Washington: A bill to amend chapter 63, section 52, Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.

By Mr Gudger: A bill extending the time of A. G. Tweed, Sheriff of Madison county. Judiciary.

By Mr. Harrison: A bill to repeal a portion of chapter 239, laws of 1874-'75. Propositions and Grievances.

By Mr. Spake: A bill to fix the hour of trial of civil cases before Justices of the Peace. Judiciary.

By Mr. Houk: A bill to repeal chapter 91, laws of 1874-'75. Corporations.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

The bill to prohibit the sale of liquor within 2 miles of Jerusalem, Liberty, Concord and Cherry Hill Churches, Davie county, was taken up and passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

The bill to prescribe a legal day's work was taken up.

[The bill makes 10 hours a legal day's work.]

On motion of Mr. Henderson, the bill was referred to the committee on judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Cobb, the rules were suspended and the bill providing penalties for throwing or shooting into railroad cars was taken up. The bill was reported favorably upon by the judiciary committee.

The bill passed its second readings and, under a suspension of the rules, came up on its third reading.

Mr. McGehee, thought the bill ought not to be pushed through. He wished time for deliberation. He was under the impression that the law already made these acts cases of malicious mischief, &c.

Mr. Cobb said that it had come under his observation that the law did not adequately provide for the punishment of offenses of this description. Several cases had come up in Mecklenburg county, and the only indictment the court would sustain was one for assault and battery. The Supreme Court had decided that to constitute a case of malicious mischief the property must be destroyed.

Mr. Bledsoe moved that it be postponed until Wednesday at 12 M.—Lost.

The bill passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed.

Mr King, of Stokes, was granted a leave of absence.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The speaker announced the following standing committees:

HOUSE COMMITTEES.

Committee on Immigration—Messrs. Slaughter, Shotwell, Worth, Yount, Wilson of Transylvania, Houk, Jarvis, Hartsell, Haynes, and Hood.

Committee on counties, cities, towns and townships—Messrs. Rose, Shackelford, Ardrey, Davis of Haywood, Wilson of New Hanover, White and Williamson.

JOINT COMMITTEES — HOUSE BRANCHES.

Committee on Penal Institutions—Messrs. Dillard, Spake, Clark, of Bladen, Lineback and Allen.

Committee on Printing—Messrs. Shotwell, Cobb, Vaughn, Purnell and Lineback.

Committee on Public Buildings, &c. Messrs. Powell, Morris, Winchester, Horton of Hertford, and Enniss.

Committee on Library—Messrs. Geffroy, Quinnerly, Gaither, Brown, Bunn and Cale.

Committee on Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum.—Messrs. Leach, Powell, McRae, McClure and Cary.

Committee on Insane Asylum—Messrs. Parrish, Staples, Ransom, Dillard and Purnell.

Committee on Enrolled Bills—Cobb, King, of Stokes, Shotwell, Fox and Russell.

Committee on Insurance—Vaughn, Stevenson, Sharpe, Bryant.

Committee on Banks and Currency. Richardson, Worth, McCubbins, Godwin and Ormond.

On motion, the House adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Movements of Cotton in Raleigh.

Receipts for week ending Nov. 24th, 1876, 2129 bales; corresponding week, 1875, 1894; increase in receipts for the year 235; whole receipts from 1st Sept. to date, 24874; same time last year, 20568; increase in receipts this year to date 4306.

The market during the week has been very active, and all cotton offering has been taken at full prices. Our market closes firm at 11¼ to 11½ for middlings. The crop has not since the war been so closely picked at this date, and very little now remains in the fields. Our farmers have accepted the low prices and have been selling freely. The yield in this section will not be as large as was expected.

Compliment to Dr. Ransom.

Dr. Edward Ransom, the member of the House from Tyrrell county, has just been elected an honorary member of the Franklin Literary Society, of Randolph Macon College, Va. In conveying to him the information of his election as such, the Secretary of the Society says: "Hoping that you, who have such a high place in the esteem of all true Southern youth, will see fit to add your name to our list of honorary members, I am yours, &c,"

Well said. Truly, Dr. Ransom should occupy a high place in the esteem of all Southern people, for he it was who once held the destinies of the State in hand, and he saved it from the apostates.

Personal.

General Robert Ransom is in the city, The General now resides in Chesterfield county, Va.

Col. T. D. Carter, editor of the Ashville Expositor arrived here yesterday.

Mr. R. G. Trezevant, formerly a conductor on the North Carolina Railroad, and a young gentleman who is well known along its line, is in the city for a few days.

Several members of the Legislature living up the North Carolina Railroad, went home yesterday afternoon to spend Sunday.

A Phenomenon.

A citizen reports to us that a few nights ago, about 10½ o'clock, he noticed that the moon had an unusually red appearance. Looking at it steadily for some time, he observed that on the apex side was a distinct shadow, about the size of the moon, resembling a blaze of fire. Several persons were called to see it, and when these retired the moon still had its unusual appearance.

Will some astronomer please examine?

Manly.

A new station has been established on the R. & A. A. L. R. R., 12 miles beyond Cameron and 69 miles from Raleigh, and it has been named Manly in honor of the distinguished family which has given to North Carolina a Governor and a Judge of the Supreme Court. The cars will shortly run regularly (carrying the mails,) between Raleigh and Manly.

Ordination and Installation.

This morning at the Presbyterian Church, just before the sermon, the service of the ordination and installation of the Elders and Deacons, recently chosen, will take place. The sermon of the pastor, Rev. Dr. Vaughn, will be directed to the office and duties of Ruling Elder, and at night to that of Deacon.

Who Shall Come South?

Mr. W. P. Gorman of this city, a well known agriculturist, who came to this city about a year ago from the northwest, recently wrote a very interesting letter to the Arnprior Review (Ontario, Canada,) descriptive of his experience in the "Sunny South." We very much regret that space cannot be given to the entire letter, and that room can only be given to one extract from the concluding portion, which relates to the a class of people who would find it to their advantage to come here. It says:

"All well intended persons, who desire to settle in a country with a pleasant, healthy climate, abounding in good water and cheap lands, and who have a little money, say $1,000, should come here. But this is no country for a white laborer. If he comes intending to make his living exclusively by his labor, he requires to have a spirit of steel, or he will go under. Negro labor is very cheap, and the best labor in the world for this country. A good plantation hand gets $10 a month, house, wood and rations free. One peck of corn meal and four pounds of bacon a week, are the rations furnished. This year my business is that of overseer. There is no chance here for white labor, either on the plantations or on public works. But the Canadians who go in droves to the Western States and to Manitoba, every spring, with $1,000 and upwards, would find a better field for their capital in North Carolina. They can get a better return for the capital invested, in a shorter time, reap larger profits, and have better prospects ahead than they can in Ontario, or the Lower Provinces, Manitoba or any of the Western States. Immigrants are coming in from the North and from Canada, pretty fast, and as the political complexion of the State changes, they will come in much faster. There is a splendid settlement of Kantucks (as you call them) 20 miles from here, at Henderson, in this State, and they are all doing well. They adhere pretty much to the Ontario style of farming, and are all getting rich by it. They are from Western Ontario. Plenty of good land can be bought here at from $1.50 to $10 per acre, all improved and convenient to railway facilities; and with your Canadian system of farming it can be made to yield the same kinds of crops, and in as great abundance as the best land in Ontario. Land here is badly encumbered with mortgages, and can be bought cheap. The school system in the rural sections is the only drawback; but there is a great change going on in respect to the schools, which will make them more numerous and of a better character. Though public, there will be no mixture of colr tolerated.

Farewell Sermons.

Rev. Dr. Burkhead, pastor of the Edenton Street Methodist Church and Rev. W. C. Norman, pastor of the Person Street Methodist Church, will, to-day, preach what may be their farewell sermons, as they leave Tuesday to attend the conference which meets in Greensboro Wednesday, when new appointments will be made. We are very glad to hear that all the indications point to the re-appointment of these gentlemen to the stations which they now so ably and acceptably fill. Under the pastorate of their respective pastors the Edenton Street and Person Street Churches have been very prosperous, and the congregations have too thorough an appreciation of the zeal, fidelity and ability of their shepherds not to earnestly desire their services for another year.

Another Sheriff.

Z. F. Long, Sheriff of Richmond county, settled the tax of his county yesterday with the State Treasurer. He paid a total of $4,974.64, divided as follows: Public tax, $2 610 02; special tax, $2,167 97; tax for educational purposes, $196 65.

"Finney and the Moulder."

Among the stories told of Finney, the revivalist, is the following: He was passing an iron foundry when the works were in full blast, and heard a workman swearing terribly. "You man," said the revivalist, addressing the swearer. "How hot do you suppose hell is?" The workman recognized the questioner, and placing his arms akimbo, and looking him squarely in the face, said, "well, Mr. Finney, I suppose that it's so hot there that if somebody brought you a spoonful of melted iron, you'd swear 'twas ice cream." Mr. Finney had nothing more to say.

Now one of the peculiar merits of the "All Right" cook stove is that it never gets too hot or too cold, but, is always all right, and is warranted the best stove sold in this or any other market. Warranted to give satisfaction or money refunded.—Prices low, write for catalogue, &c.

Julius Lewis & Co.

How is it, that A. C. Sanders & Co., buy so much cotton? Why, because they pay such high prices. Sanders also has a nice stock of groceries which he sells at exceedingly low prices. Call to see them at once.

An effort existing without a cause is an impossibility; tickling in the throat, husking of voice, violent coughing, etc., are the effects of a severe cold. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures the cold at once, and removes its serious effects.

Mince meat, cranberries, currents, prunes, and all kinds of canned fruits and vegetables, raisins and a sack of fresh roasted coffee, just received at Woollcott's Open Front Store.

THE Republican Board of Canvassers in South Carolina defy the Supreme Court. What next?

THE inauguration of Gov. Vance should be the grandest affair ever witnessed in the State. Can we not make it so?

THE prospect for a general war in Europe is not so good as it was a few days ago. Still, the circumstances are menacing. There is no assurance of peace.

THE election of General Ransom to the Senate of the United States takes place on Tuesday. It is a walk-over for him. The Republicans will waste their ballots upon O. H. Dock-

THE Returning Board of South Carolina sets the Supreme Court at defiance. "Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad." But there is method in the madness of these dark-lantern manipulators. It is their evident purpose to provoke a conflict, in the desperate hope that it will arouse the old war-spirit of the North, and check the rapid growth of public sentiment in Tilden's favor.

HISTORY contains no instances of as bold attempts at fraud as the Returning Boards of Louisiana and South Carolina are endeavoring to effect. They make no concealment of their shameless tricks. Villainy of this character cannot succeed in the broad light of day. We may not be surprised to hear in a few days of a complete break-down in the attempt. There are signs of weakening; and every day public opinion among the Northern people is growing and strengthening in Tilden's favor.

THE MILITARY IN WASHINGTON.

It is unquestioned now that the government proposes to concentrate the army in Washington. Everybody must know how the Southern people look upon this gathering of soldiers at the capital, to seat Hayes. But Southern opinion, a Southern feeling in the matter, is of little consequence at this particular juncture. The opinions and the feelings, however, of the Northern Democrats is of the first importance. The appended article from the New York Sun reflects their views very clearly:

"Grant, Sherman, Cameron and Robeson stoutly deny that any troops or ships of war are to be concentrated at or about Washington. Nevertheless, they are doing what they deny. To pacify the people, they blandly respond to all inquiries: Pray, why do we want troops or ships here?

"When the conspiracy was organized to count Hayes in as President by changing the returns in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, did not the conspirators concentrate troops at Columbia, Tallahassee and New Orleans? And as they are now about ready to consummate their crime, why should they not think it prudent to have troops and men-of-war at Washington during the process, and before?

"Two weeks hence the House of Representatives assembles in Washington. In that House the Democrats have a majority of seventy, and will they not be likely to appoint committees to report upon the frauds whereby Hayes is counted in? And may not the House even propose to go to the extent of impeaching the leaders in this plot to thwart the verdict of the ballot boxes, such as Grant, Cameron, Chandler and Taft? And will those gentlemen not feel happier with the army there to overawe the refractory House?

"It is only about ten weeks before the false certificates from the three fraudulent States, covering their nineteen stolen votes, will be opened in the presence of both Houses of Congress. When, at that critical moment, the conspirators finally count Hayes in and declare him elected President, why should they not deem it advisable to have a few men-of-war in the Eastern branch of the Potomac, and to surround the Capitol with bayonets, sabres and cannon, and picket its portals, halls and galleries with armed men, who know no law except obedience to the powers that pay, feed and clothe them?

"And when at last these desperate demagogues induct their amiable puppet into office, and place him in the White House in March, will it not be natural for them to complete their great infamy in the midst of a hollow square of trusty and well-drilled troops, commanded by an unhesitating, rough soldier like Sheridan?

"The only reason for these military preparations is the bad conscience of the conspirators. There is no other occasion for them. The party of reform will not resist their monstrous iniquity by any method of violence. It will be set out in its true light by the discussions of the press and the investigations of Congress, and the final sentence on it and on them will be recorded at the ballot boxes."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Give me liberty or give me death!—Virginia and Massachusetts in 1776.

Give me a dollar and take my liberty!—Plymouth Rock, 1876.—Richmond Whig.

It is becoming more apparent every day that peace and prosperity will never bless this country until the military party is hurled from power.

The climate of California holds the lingering Morton enchained. To speak prosaically, he says he won't return to the East notwithstanding telegrams, until the Congressional Chinese Commission has finished its work.

"All the prosperous agricultural communities in the United States are for Hayes," says the New York Graphic But then the Graphic knows very well that under Republican rule there are no "prosperous agricultural communities in the United States."

Springfield Republican: So far as the moral question is concerned, we have no tears to shed for the Democrats if they lose the Presidency—they have not deserved to win it; our only doubt is whether the Republican party and the country can afford to try the hazardous experiment, for the first time in our history, of electing a President not by a majority of the votes actually cast, but by a majority of votes which the party in power holds ought to have been cast."

Louisville Courier-Journal: "Since the election," says the Boston Traveller, "the Republican party has renewed its love for and its faith in loyalty and peace." For a proof of this see the late naval orders to get a large number of ships ready for active service. See also military orders sending half the army into Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina. Examine the Hayes organs, also and mark the bloody and warlike threats of revolution. Republican loyalty is only loyalty to the active principle of revolution and plunder. The Boston Traveller inwardly knows this.

The Courier-Journal pays a passing tribute to Kilpatrick: Kilpatrick is a very fair specimen of the Republican emissaries in the South who deliberately manufacture statements to aid Zach. Chandler in his infamous and revolutionary work of trying to obstruct the fraternization of the Northern and Southern people, and thus subserve the interests of the military party of which Grant and Hayes are the recognized leaders. A man whose shibboleth is "the bloody shirt with money" might be expected to rival the devil himself in the profession of lying.

PERSONAL.

The masked battery does not always win the fight.

Edmund Yates of the London World, has an income of $50,000 a year.

Now Mr. Blaine is full of pain, and Mr. Grant begins to rant, as the poet says.

Independent candidates throughout the State have probably learned that they are very dependent on the votes of their fellow-citizens.

The speeches delivered on Thursday of the Sampson fair by Maj. Jas. C. McRae and Hon. Kemp. Battle were fine productions, evincing intimate acquaintance with the subjects treated of, and were heard with great pleasure by the large audience.—Fayetteville Gazette.

Judge Settle told a correspondent of the Richmond Whig a few days ago, on his way to Washington City, "that he abandoned all hope of Hayes' election the morning after the election, and he had never since had any faith in the statement to the contrary."

Atlanta Constitution: Some of the newspaper correspondents are taking the trouble to state that Don. Cameron is a liar. This is tautology. It is only necessary to state that he is a Radical. The meaning of the word is equal to a thirteen volume biography.

South Carolina Trickery.

[From ... Herald, of 24 h]

At this moment the attitude and the wise counsel of Wade Hampton in South Carolina are worthy of the imitation of his fellow democrats all over the country. The South Carolina democrats appealed to the Supreme Court of the State, consisting of three judges, all republicans, to decide the proper functions, under the constitution, of the Returning Board. That Board consists of five Republicans, all State officers and three candidates for re-election and therefore sitting as judges on their own cases. The Supreme Court heard argument and issued a temporary injunction, pending further argument, by which the Returning Board was ordered to count and report to the Court the actual votes cast, according to the returns of the county commissioners, and to await the final decision of the Court on the further question whether the Board had, under the constitution, such judicial functions as would authorize it to hear objections or decide generally upon the validity of the votes. On Monday the Board accordingly reported to the Court that returns showed the Senate to eighteen Republicans and fifteen Democrats; the House, of sixty Republicans and sixty-four Democrats—one majority for the Democrats on joint ballot. Thereupon the Court proceeded to hear further argument on the functions of the Board, and while this was going on, and while the counsel of the Returning Board were actually in Court and taking part in the proceedings, the Board met privately, flung out two Democratic counties, on, as one dissenting member declares in a written protest, merely ex parte evidence; hastily made out certificates of election to Republican members of the Legislature and to the Hayes electors adjourned sine die. The members claim that ten days was the legal limit of their existence as Board; but if they believe this, and if their counsel, one of them curiously enough the United States District Attorney, so advised them, why should they not have notified the Court? Why did their counsel attend on court at the very time of this action, and thus help to deceive the Supreme Judges? Why should the Board do by a trick what they assert to be right? This is what the country asked yesterday when the news was read.

Under these grave and exasperating circumstances General Wade Hampton issues an address to the people of South Carolina urging the utmost order, absolute peace and patience. The advice is sound and patriotic, and the North, without respect to party lines, thanks him for it. The recent attitude of the democrats in South Carolina has been a model of self-command and loyal submission of their interests and rights to the proper arbitrament of the courts. The country has watched them with anxiety, but with increasing satisfaction. We hope they will observe strictly the admonition of their leader and candidate for Governor. We are a true and law-abiding people, and this matter will be settled according to law. Irritating, justly irritating as such unworthy trickery is, the North, too, must command its temper and have patience. The snarl we are in can be untangled only with patience and by orderly and lawful methods. Any one who to-day or at this time counsels or even fails to condemn violence, any one who adds by incendiary advice or suggestion to the prevailing and just irritation and excitement, does an unpatriotic act and deserves the severest condemnation of the public. We are glad to find in the most influential democratic journals here the soundest advice on the subject.

The Sun, one of the most vigorous and powerful supporters of the Democratic cause, said on Tuesday, "Better submit to wrong for the time, however gross, than appeal to any but legal, constitutional and peaceful methods." General Hampton urges the same course upon the people of South Carolina. In New Orleans prominent men who have just been there say the attitude of the Democratic party is absolutely quiet and orderly; they await in confidence the justice of the North.

Let them have patience and confidence. The North, the Northern Republican party, is fast awakening to a comprehension of the situation. This is not a matter in which the Democrats can usefully act. The initiative does not belong to them, their part is to wait in patience, in absolute order and quiet. The chief duty of the crisis falls upon the Republican masses. They are honest and sensible, and they will not tolerate wrong or trickery or even the appearance of wrong, in this matter. It is for them to demand, and we believe they will demand, in public meetings, not only or merely an honest count, but such measures as shall assure them and their Democratic neighbors and friends that there is not taint of suspicion about it. Unless we greatly mistake the temper and attitude of the republican masses they will make themselves heard and their influence felt to this end very soon. As we write we have before us a private letter from one of the leading republicans of Massachusetts, who writes us, 'What you do think of the result of the election? I hope Tilden will get it as the matter stands." That is what to-day nine out of ten of the honest republicans think; and we say to the republican leaders, plainly, that they have become, within the last week objects of suspicion to their own party and the public, equally with the returning board in whose proceedings and charter they are involved; and that unless they at once and conspicuously condemn and oppose themselves to all trickery and everything which bears even the faintest odor of intended fraud they will see the honest men of their own party rise up in public meetings all over the country to denounce them.

How to Relax the Financial Pressure.

The South Will not Resist.

[Alexandria Gazette.]

Whatever may be the result of the proceedings now in progress looking to the inauguration of a President of the United States, other than the one chosen at the late election, whether it be intended that Gov. Hayes shall be made the weak head of a new administration of the government in the interest of the corruptionists who now hold the reigs of power, or whether according to the suggestion of Gen. Butler, Gen. Grant shall hold over, it is a settled fact that there will be no attempt on the part of any of the States of the South to resist the power of the usurpation. Apart from the self evident conviction that all such efforts would be vain, the people of that section long accustomed to see law disregarded and all its sanctions deprived of their force, have grown into the grim beatitude of those who are "blessed because they expect nothing and shall not be disappointed." But it can scarcely be a subject of gratification to those adherents of the Republican party, who have still left some feeling akin to the spirit of seventy-six, some appreciation of the men of Boston who went to war against a preamble, that half of the country has been reduced to such plight that even the total subversion of the Constitution would excite no demonstration more lively than a Governor's protest or a red-tape resolution.

It may be that even in the breast of Governor Hayes, who seems to be a mild sample of the genuine American men which the Great West produces, there must arise a feeling of humiliation that he is selected to open the second century of the Union with a precedent which reverses all the traditions, habits and thoughts that prevailed in the country at the opening of its first century.

We have met with a real disappointment, and we suspect a considerable part of the public here shares it with us To Florida, about a week ago, sped two public men, highly esteemed as capable and calm; and at Tallahasse, to our great delight, they fell at once into the ranks of what they call down there "visiting statesmen." In fact, they took leading places, as was proper, and Northern people who had been anxious before, now rested in peace. It was natural to suppose that General Barlow and Mr. Marble, one Republican, the other Democrat, but both honest, experienced in politics, clear-headed and cool, would unite to watch the political intrigues at Tallahassee, and act and report for the people and not for their parties. And behold, yesterday found their names—the one at the head of a Republican, the other as the author of a Democratic, purely partisan representation of affairs. We respectfully call them to order. They are there in the interest of the nation; they ought to co-operate, and to make no publication, at least at this time, in which both cannot agree. Partisan reports and assertions can be left to the local or "visiting" politicians. We beg Messrs. Barlow and Marble to regard themselves as really "visiting statesmen."

The Lament of a Man who is no Politician.

In no peace for a soul
That's distracted with doubt?
Let us know who is in,
Let us know who is out:
For our eyes they grow dim
As on figures we gaze
That make it for Tilden
And make it for Hayes.

O for seers and prophets
Like those of the Jews!
They were better than papers
That plague us with news;
They were smarter than editors,
All in a daze,
Who tell us 'tis Tilden,
Who tell us 'tis Hayes

Call the spooks and the mejums
Perhaps they will know,
Summon Slade with his pencil,
And Home with his show.
Let them rap on our sconces
To end our amaze,
And say it 'tis Tilden
Or say it 'tis Hayes,

Is that phantasmal vote
Hid in the mountains or swamps?
Go Grays, with your lanterns,
Go Blues with your lamps,
Hunt it down, and when captured,
Just give it a blaze,
Whether fatal to Tilden,
Or fatal to Hayes.

We long for a season
Of quiet and rest,
To wipe off our moustache
And pull down our vest;
But how can we do it
When boys stop their plays
To shout loudly for Tilden,
And madly for Hayes?

Our young men grow gray
And our fat men grow thin,
Fed on "extras" that lie
Like original sin,
Give us calm for our slumbers
And peace for our days,
For we're weary of Tilden,
And weary of Hayes.

A Lively Telegram From Gov. Tilden.

The following telegrams will be read with interest.

Mr. N. T. Williams, of Lynchburg, overburdened by his anxiety, determined to hear from Mr. Tilden himself. He sent the following:

To S. J. Tilden, New York city:

Lynchburg, November 10, 1876.—If Hayes is elected, send me a tombstone. I do not wish to live.

N. T. WILLIAMS.

This answers came back:

New York City November 10, 1876.—Live on, young man! Live on!

SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

The telegrams were read out in the club at Lynchburg amidst inextinguishable laughter.

The country may rest assured that no wrong will be done, and that if any is attempted it will not be carried out. If Gov. Hayes has been fairly elected he will be inaugurated. If he has not been he will not be "counted in"—for two reasons: the Republican party cannot afford to take the election by fraud; its leaders know the critical temper of the people too well to take the risk of it; and second, the quiet, unassuming gentleman, who did not seek the nomination, and has not turned a finger to secure his own election, has too much self-respect and dignity of character, and too high a sense of personal honor, to take the Presidency or any other office with a stain upon his title. We shall have an honest declaration of the result. The Democrats are powerless to hinder it, and the Republicans cannot afford to. —New York Tribune.

"O wearisome condition of humanity!"

How many wretched homes in our land! How many heart-broken invalids! Life with many signifies a mere onerous existence. All are subject to disease, but when health is removed the hope is nearly gone out. Sickness is usually incurred through exposure or carelessness. Especially is this true with those diseases peculiar to woman. Through her own imprudence and folly she is made to drag out a miserable existence—a source of annoyance and anxiety to her friends, and any thing but a comfort and pleasure to herself. Exposure to the cold at times when she should be most prudent, and overtaxing her body with laborious employment, are both fruitful causes of many of the maladies from which she suffers. Gradually the bloom leaves her checks, her lips grow ashy white, her vivacity departs, she continually experiences a feeling of weariness and general languor, and altogether presents a ghostly appearance. What does she need? Should she take some stimulating drug, which will for the time make her "feel better," or does her entire system demand reparation? She requires something which not only will restore to health the diseased organs, but will tone and invigorate the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do this. It imparts strength to the diseased parts, brings back the glow of health, and restores comfort where previously there was only suffering.

Every invalid lady should send for "The Peoples Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which over fifty pages are devoted to the consideration of those diseases peculiar to Women. It will be sent, post-paid, to any address, for $1.50. Address, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. Agents wanted to sell this valuable work.

LEGAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the power and authority contained in that certain deed of trust, bearing date the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy, and made by and between the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company of the one part, and R. A. Lancaster, W. K. Easley and Alfred Austell of the other part, and in compliance with the directions in that behalf contained in the decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, made at October Term, 1875, in a certain suit in equity therein pending, in which Skipwith Wilmer and Auguste Richard are complaints, and the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company and others are defendants (and in and by which decree the undersigned John H. Fisher was appointed a trustee under the said deed of trust in the place of the said W. K. Easley who was deceased, and with all of the rights, power and authority under the said deed of trust which were possessed by the said W. K. Easley in his lifetime), and in compliance also with the decrees of the Circuit Courts of the United States for the District of South Carolina and of the Western District of North Carolina, confirming the said decree made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia: We, the undersigned, will on the fifth day of December next, between the legal hours of sale, to wit, between 11 o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. on that day, in front of the county Court House of Fulton county, in the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, sell at public auction, the entire railway of the said The Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company extending from the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, to the city of Charlotte in the State of North Carolina, together with all its franchises, lands, buildings, machinery, rolling-stock, materials, and other property, real and personal, wherever situated and in whatsoever manner held, and whether owned and held by the said company at the time of the date of the said deed of trust, or thereafter acquired.

The terms of such sale shall be as follows:

1st. The premises will be sold in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash.

2d. Ten per cent. of the purchase money of the said premises will be required to be paid to the undersigned trustees at the time and place of sale and immediately after the premises shall be struck down, and the purchaser will be required at the same time to sign a memorandum of his purchase.

3d. The residue of such purchase money will be required to be paid to the said trustees at the office of John H. Fisher, as receiver of the said railway, in the city of Atlanta, on or before the twenty-six day of December next, when and where the deed of the undersigned, for the said premises will be ready for delivery.

4th. The biddings will be kept open after the premises shall be struck down, and in case any purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the terms of sale, the premises struck down to him will be again put up for sale upon the same terms of sale Provided, however, that if the holders of any of the four thousand two hundred and forty-eight bonds, secured by the said deed of trust, should, at the sale become the purchasers of the said premises, it shall not be necessary for them to pay the purchase money therefor, so far as concerns the proportion thereof, which, as such bondholders, they would be entitled to receive if the net amount of such purchase money were distributed pro rata equally among all of the holders of the said four thousand two hundred and forty eight bonds; but, that in such case, the bonds held by them, with the coupons annexed thereto, shall be brought into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, and the sale to them will be reported to the said court by the undersigned, and a conveyance by them to such bondholders will be withheld until the said Court shall give directions in relation to the disposition to be made of the proceeds of such sale.

CHANGE OF TRADE MARK.

THE L. & R. THE STAR.

Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATE SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States.—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the gross impositions now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that

GREAT AND GOOD FERTILIZER.

ormerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L & R, with the above cut which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark, and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

SUPER PHOSPHATE.

NOON DISPATCHES

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS.

THE MEETING---WHAT VICE PRESIDENT-ELECT HENDRICKS SAID

A Compliment to the South.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The Tribune in its report of the meeting of Governors Tilden and Hendricks yesterday, says that Gov. Hendricks said that public sentiment in the western States in regard to the election was so strong that he was impelled to come east to ascertain the condition of public feeling here. He expressed his admiration at the conduct of the Southern Democrats, who without the least turbulence had appealed everywhere to the courts, and was glad that both in the west and on his journey hitherward to notice the disposition of all parties to have matters amicably and lawfully settled. Gov. Tilden fully concurred with all of Gov. Hendricks remarks, and there appeared to be a perfect accord of ideas in regard to the questions of the hour. No disposition was manifest on the prrt either of Gov. Tilden or Gov. Hendricks to enter upon a decided plan of action, and after a few other remarks on various topics, Gov. Hendricks withdraws without making a definite appointment, only expressing the hope that he would see Mr Tilden before leaving the city. At the Everett House last night Mr. Hendricks said: "We have no idea of agreeing upon a plan of action. My coming east was caused solely by a desire to be posted as to the public feeling, and to see a few members of the National Committee. We talked no politics at dinner this evening. I may go back to Indiana to-morrow."

LOUISIANA.

The Swindling Boards---Rascality at Every Turn.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—Seven polls are missing from the returns before the Board out of the fourteen in East Baton Rouge, leaving the count before the Board, Tilden 11,025; Hayes 11,477, instead of Tilden 2,238; Hayes 1,626 as ascertained from the returns of the Commissioners. After much discussion, and bitter complaint from Democrats, East Baton Rouge was laid aside. Returns from fourteen parishes are still missing. The Democrats remonstrate that returns for all but electors and Governor are examined and tabulated by clerks in rooms apart from the Board. They ask for a Democratic representative on the clerical force to detect errors and frauds.

FOREIGN.

Antiquarian Researches---The Coming Conference.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The Times despatch from Argos says that Dr. Schleimann is excavating at the site of the supposed of tomb Agamon and Cassandra. He has discovered vast tombs containing a great variety of gold and silver plate and jewels.

The Times reviewing the prospects of the conference says the specific proposals which will come before it have been examined in every capital of Europe. The conclusion is universal that they present no insuperable obstacles to peace. Under the leadership of the English and Russian ambassadors they may be so mild as to command the support of every guaranteeing power and secure the acceptance of the Porte.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Supreme Court and the Board of Canvassers.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 25.—The Supreme Court has just entered judgment of a $1500 fine each and commitment of all members of the Board of Canvassers to jail until released by order of the court. The court is now proceeding with the case against United States District Attorney Corbin, the counsel of the Board for contempt. There is considerable suppressed excitement.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

NEW YORK, 25.—Governor Hendricks and wife; Gov. Tilden; Ex Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania; Mr. Hewitt and wife, dined with Peter Cooper yesterday. Hendricks is homeward bound to-day. He says he did not come here for a conference.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FLORIDA.

The Board of Canvassers to Meet Monday---Official Returns All In---The Injunction and Mandamus Cases Still Pending---Who Will Witness the Count?

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 25th.—The board of canvassers received a notification this morning from the Secretary of State, who is ex-officio a member of the board, and charged with calling it together, that they must meet at 12 o'clock M. Monday to canvass the vote of the State.

The Judge has not yet decided the injunction and mandamus cases now pending before him, and this action of the board seems to obviate necessity of a decision, as this will be doing precisely what the Democratic managers prayed the Court to command to be done. The board will admit a committee of five from each of the political parties, and the chairmen of the two State committees, to its sessions. A decision as to the admission of newspaper correspondents has not yet been made.

Official returns are now all in. The result will hardly be reached before the 6th of December, when by law of the United States the electors' certificates must be issued.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Corbin Contempt Case---He Did'nt Go To Do It.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 25.—District Attorney Corbin, counsel for the Board of Canvassers, disclaimed any intentional contempt and asked a postponement till Monday. The court is now occupied with argument on the electoral vote case.

Board of Canvassers in Jail!

JUST WHERE THEY OUGHT to BE

A Fifteen Hundred Dollar Fine Each.

Certificates of Election from the Clerk of the Court---The Presidential Electors.

JUDGE BOND WILL NOT INTERFERE.

[Special Dispatch Raleigh News.]

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 25.

The Supreme Court fined each each member of the Canvassing Board fifteen hundred dollars, and imprisoned all five this afternoon. The case of the Presidential Electors will be decided Monday.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court will issue certificates of election, under the seal of the court, to the Democratic legislators from Edgefield and Laurens counties.

Judge Bond, of the United States Court, has not yet interfered and says he will not.

All is quiet here.

J. B. GORDON.

LOUISIANA RETURNING BOARD.

Wells' Knavery---The Vacancy---Couldn't Raise 75 cents---The Villiany to be Persisted in.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 25.—The Board of Canvassers met at the usual hour. The attendance was as usual. Wells said that he must dispense with the reading of any protests. A motion is before the Board that all evidence must be in before the close of the coming week, or the Board would not be able to get through with its deliberations. He also said the Board had taken no action on filling the vacancy. Gov. Wells intimated that the Democrats had lost all claim to representation on the Board by Mr. Arrogos' resignation. He said the Board would try to fill the vacancy if they could agree on any one. With regard to the returns laying in the express office, Gov. Wells said the Board had no funds to pay the charges, the Legislature having failed to make an appropriation. The members of the Board were unwilling to risk their own means when their warrants were thirty cents on the dollar. Col. Zacharie said the Democratic committee would defray the expense.—Gov. Wickliffe remarked that the charges only amounted to 75 cents. Col. Zacharie having offered to furnish the clerk with means to pay the expenses, the Board mildly consented to the returns being taken out of the express office.

The Board reached no conclusion relative to using certified duplicates of returns.

Gov. Wells stated that the privilege of cross interrogation would be allowed, but the proceedings of the Board would not be obstructed under any any consideration. He said that further notice would be taken of the affidavits presented by both sides, but adherred to the ruling that the affidavits should have been filed within 10 days of the making up of the returns.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Revolution in Lower California---The Ineligible Elector in Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Private advices received here render it probable that the revolution in Lower California, reported yesterday, is the beginning of an insurrectionary movement in favor of Porpiero Diaz which will spread throughout the State. There are scarcely any government troops there.

A Portland, Oregon, dispatch denies that any application has been made to the courts for an injunction restraining the issuance of a certificate of election to Watts, the Republican elector. The Democrats state positively that such action will be taken. The Republicans are confident that the certificate cannot be legally withheld.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—For the South Atlantic States westerly winds; stationary or lower temperature, followed by rising barometer and partly cloudy weather.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A limited number of boarders can procure comfortable quarters in an eligible portion of the city at low rates. Apply at once to this office.

A first-class cook is wanted. Apply at this office.

If you want boots and shoes for a little money, call at Marcus Harris & Bro. 15 Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C.

Lumsden is selling more stoves than ever, and selling them cheaper than ever. A lot of cooking and heating stoves just received. A beautiful lot of lamps also just arrived, very cheap. The Safety, or non-explosive lamp, cheaper than any in the market.

Look out for the cheap shoe store, a new lot of boots and shoes just received and will be sold cheaper than at any other house in the city, at Marcus Harris & Bro., 15 Fayetteville street, Raleigh, N. C.

David Anderson with J. Osborne's Grain and Feed Store—office in Adam's building, on Wilmington street—wood, both oak and pine, sold at prices to suit the times.

Rand & Wyatt, Grocers and Commission Merchants, opposite the Market, Wilmington street, have on hand Bagging and Ties at the lowest market prices; also Groceries, wholesale and retail. Selling cotton a specialty, and consignments solicited, which shall have the prompt attention of our Mr. Wyatt, with an experience of four years on the market. Inquiries concerning cotton promptly answered.

The recent decline in the price of coal at the auction sales in New York enables us to sell at extremely low rates. Peters Brothers, Portsmouth Virginia.

LOCAL MATTER.

He Didn't Like It.

The night the Democratic caucus met in the hall of the House of Representatives to nominate a United States Senator old friend Hood, the Republican member from Henderson, walked in and took his seat. The door-keeper went to him and told him that none but Democrats need apply, and that he would have to get out. He got out accordingly. The next morning a Democratic member of the Legislature, went into brother Hood's room and found him packing up his traps. He asked for an explanation, when brother Hood told him that his people had sent him here to the Legislature, and if he was to be collared and put out of the hall, he be dad-drat if he wasn't going home.

If he hadn't been stopped in time he would have been gone, sure enough, and the sheriff of Henderson county would have been here with a posse about a week hence in order to see him re-seated

The Member from Dare.

For a long time there has been much speculation as to who was the member from Dare county to the House of the General Assembly, and what the complexion of his politics. All uncertainty is now at an end. G. L. Fulcher, Esq., the member elect from Dare county, arrived in this city yesterday and is now at the National. We are glad to say he belongs to the white man's party, and is a staunch Democrat. He received a majority of 45 votes, and would have been at the organization of the House, but did not receive his certificate of election in time do so. The election of Mr. Fulcher in Dare is another gain for the Democratic party.

Kind Words from Abroad.

The following compliment to Col. J. D. Cameron, clerk of the House, and formerly editor of the NEWS, comes from across the border. It comes from the Danville (Va.) Times: "We are glad Colonel John D. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder, has been elected to the principal clerkship of the House of Representatives of North Carolina He made a good officer before, is a perfect gentleman, and is devoted to the best interests of his State and the United States. We shall always be glad of any good fortune that may attend him."

Jailed.

Yesterday, Henry Hicks, col, was brought in from St. Mary's township, this county, and committed to jail. He committed an assault upon an old negro man by the name of Luke Bryan, and not being able to give the required bail bond of $200 for his appearance at the next term of our Superior Court was jailed.

Another Witness.

Mr. R. T. Fulghum, well known in North Carolina, and at present editor of that most excellent paper the Farmer's Journal, came very near losing his interesting little daughter, four years old, the other night and under the following circumstances: His wife left his daughter playing in the parlor, a moment afterwards she heard a loud crash and found her little child sitting in a pool of oil, and a shattered lamp that holds a quart of oil lay broken in a thousand pieces. The burning wick fell into the oil and went out. Had that lamp not been filled with Pratt's Astral Oil Mr. Fulghum would no doubt to-day be childless and houseless.

Members of the Legislature, and the public generally, are invited to call at Nos. 4 and 6 Hargett street, and examine the most complete stock of cooking and heating stoves in the city, which will be sold at prices to suit the times. The most complete assortment of hardware, edge tools, tin ware, wood and willow ware, earthen ware, &c., sold lower than can be bought elsewhere. The famous Cotton King stove sold lower than ever.

Job work of all kinds, tin roofing and guttering, guns, locks and sewing machines repaired.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION BY THE Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH, Nov. 25 1876.

WHEREAS, The People of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed with the favor and protection of Divine Providence, which has crowned the past year with plenty and general prosperity, preserved to us the enjoyment of civil and religious liberty, exempted us from the ravages of war, pestilence famine, and other calamities which have scourged other peoples and States, permitting no evils to befall us but such as are incident to the common lot of man.

Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a christian people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, CURTIS H. BROGDEN, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1876,

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State.

And I do earnestly invite the Clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship, and the people to abstain on that day from all pursuits inconsistent with the sacred duties of the occasion, and with devout hearts to assemble in their respective sanctuaries, and offer the prayer of thanksgiving, and unite in the songs of praise to Him who has given us peace and plenty, and vouchsafed all the privileges and blessings we enjoy. Let gratitude inspire our hearts and enlarge our benevolence And remembering the poor and unfortunate among us, let us add to our devotions deeds of charity and works of love. And I especially recommend on that day of thanksgiving and rejoicing, that donations be solicited in all places of public worship in this State for the benefit of the needy children of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford and Asheville.

With gratitude for the mercies of the past, let us seek wisdom from above to guide us in the future, that our feet may be kept in the paths of rectitude and that our days may be a blessing to ourselves and those with whom we associate.

Done at the City of Raleigh, on this the 25th day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, and in the one hundred and first year of American Independence

C. H. BROGDEN.

By the Governor:
J. B. NEATHERY,
Private Secretary.
